

Plagiarism Contract

Plagiarism can be defined as submitting another person's ideas, words, images or data without giving that person credit or proper acknowledgement. Plagiarism, a form of academic dishonesty, is tantamount to stealing and will not be tolerated. In order to clarify what constitutes plagiarism, you should be aware that you have committed plagiarism when you:

- use phrases, quotes or ideas not your own;
- paraphrase the work of another even though you may have changed the wording or syntax;
- use facts or data not considered common knowledge;
- submit a paper written for another class (academic dishonesty);
- submit a paper from an essay service or agency even though you may have paid for it (these papers are usually of low quality, so you probably did not get your money's worth);
- submit a paper by another person even though he or she may have given you permission to use it.

You should also note that plagiarism not only encompasses written work, but also computer data, research, musical scores, video programs and visual arts.

Plagiarism is a serious issue, especially in an academic environment. Teachers must be able to rely on the integrity of a student's work in order to maintain a climate for successful learning. Plagiarism reflects on character; therefore, you should diligently avoid inadvertent plagiarism. When you are unsure if acknowledgement is needed, ask your teacher. The penalties for blatant plagiarism include:

- 1st Offense: Loss of all credit for the assignment with no opportunity to rewrite. Parent conference will be scheduled through the counseling office. Dean's referral will be submitted for scholastic dishonesty.
- 2nd Offense: Loss of all credit for the assignment with no opportunity to rewrite. Student will not receive an "O" for citizenship. Dean's referral will be submitted for scholastic dishonesty, resulting in a Required Parent Conference (RPC).
- 3rd Offense: Loss of all credit for the assignment with no opportunity to rewrite. Dean's referral will be submitted for scholastic dishonesty, resulting in a Required Parent Conference (RPC); consequences may include suspension in accordance with the Clark County School District Behavior Guidelines for Secondary Students. Student may be removed from the CTA program and returned to his or her home school.

I, _____, am aware of the serious nature of plagiarism and will not intentionally use or submit someone else's work without acknowledgement. Furthermore, I will not misrepresent someone else's work as my own. I acknowledge that I am responsible to submit all of my written essays to turnitin.com for plagiarism detection.
